Celebrate National Safety Month this June with a safe workplace

A safe workplace: All businesses want one, but not all businesses prepare for one. According to the Ohio Bureau of Workers' Compensation, in 2006 employers lost 2.7 million production days due to injuries. Those lost days translated into $220 million in lost productivity and $1.7 billion in direct workers' comp costs to employers. Emergencies in the workplace are rare, but every company needs to have systems in place to protect their workers.

Venture Association to hold Inventors' Fair

The Greater Cincinnati Venture Association will hold it's annual Inventors' Fair on Thursday, June 21 from 5 to 7 p.m. The event is a unique opportunity to finance tomorrow's ideas today, and to meet local inventors and learn about their new inventions. It's also an opportunity to interact with the region's most innovative minds and the who's who of the venture capital community. The Inventor's Fair is $25 for members and $35 for non-members. It will be held at CincyTechUSA, 620 Oak Street. To register, call 513.579.3111.

Last call for WE Lead applications

Applications are currently being accepted for the second class of WE Lead, the Chamber's leadership development program for women. WE Lead focuses on helping Cincinnati USA business women find mentors, achieve a work/life balance, grow their businesses, build personal and professional skills and share valuable business and life experiences and stories with peers on the rise. The program is designed for women of any age who are established in their career as an accomplished manager or business owner, and are interested in growing their leadership capabilities. Applications are being accepted through June 15 for the 2007-2008 class.

Partnership conducts first-ever meeting with consultants

Following on the heels of its fifth-annual Chicago trip, Cincinnati USA Partnership staff and six local community partners recently traveled to Massachusetts to meet with Boston-based site location consultants. The Partnership is the regional economic development initiative directed by the Chamber.

According to Jessica Michaels Johnson, economic development director for the Chamber, several national site location consulting firms that cover the Cincinnati USA region are based in Boston.
